ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

ELDERLY NUTRITION PROGRAMS

Home-Delivered Meals (Meals On Wheels): Persons over 60, the spouse of an eligible participant, and certain disabled persons under 60 may qualify for meals delivered up to five times a week. Donations are invited.

Senior Meals: Hot meals served in a social setting in many towns in the region, anywhere from daily to several times a month to Vermonters over 60 and their spouse of any age, plus certain others. Donations are invited.

For details about these programs or whether there may be transportation services to meal sites, contact: Central Vermont Council on Aging at 802-479-0531 or the toll-free Vermont Senior HelpLine at 1-800-642-5119 (voice/TTY). The HelpLine rings at the Area Agency on Aging serving the region where the call is being made.

THE VERMONT FOODBANK

A foodbank is different from a food shelf, and there is only one foodbank in Vermont. The Vermont Foodbank distributes millions of pounds of food from many sources through its network of food shelves, meal sites and other network partners. The Foodbank also makes certain federal food commodities available for food shelves to distribute to income-eligible households. Interested organizations should visit <http://www.vtfoodbank.org> or call them at 802-476-3341 or 1-800-585-BANK. Mail Address: PO Box 254 / South Barre, VT 05670
